APRIL 2019: A MONTH OF SELF-DISCOVERY

Greetings!

(A note from Sohrab: As the channeling began, the Masters guided the group through some intensive healing for several people, as well as some specific instructions to help a certain person pass over. His personal issues were outlined, and therefore I am choosing not to include it in this transcript. The Master then spoke to a newcomer, referring to his deceased father.)

Son! He is in a good space of security and light. He is not 'conscious'; he is simply in expansion. He is healing. Send him love, thoughts and blessings: he will receive this in the form of soothing vibrations. The words you choose are therefore less important than your intent. He is safe, secure and speedily healing.

(Now addressing the group in general)

Each one of you has specifically been blessed today with the healing light you just used to help others. It is yours to use for regeneration, rebirth and recreation of the self. Use it to heal, balance and align the self. It will give you a renewed sense of wonderment and exuberance; it will help you revel in life. Enjoy it!

SAI KA PRANAAM.

(Sohrab shifts energies)

Greetings!

This upcoming month (April) is a beautiful one of self-discovery.

Do everything you can to self-search and find out who you really are. From time to time sit quietly with the self and demand to know “Who am I”?

If you truly relax into this process and commit to it, you will get flashes and glimpses of the past, as well as insights into other lifetimes, timelines and dimensions.

Some of these may appear to be unreal, as they are so lofty. Do not dismiss them out of hand, saying to the self that they can't possibly be true. Many of you have been, and continue to be, grand energetic figures in different timelines and dimensions. This will be gently revealed to you, if you search for them during the course of the month. The key being ‘if you search’. Yes: sit down and command that they be revealed to you, knowing that you are worthy of the truth.

At the same time, don't get caught up in the glamour of the revelations. Instead, ask why they have been shown to you. Examine their core essence. Yes, you may have been a king; but the essence may be that you have innate abilities to organize and command people; ones that you now need to tap into and exercise in this lifetime.

You may, on occasion, be given a glimpse of a lifetime which does not please you; one in which you might be a thief or murderer. Again, do not reject this out of hand or self-flagellate. Understand why you have been shown this. Is there something in that lifetime's experience that you need to see, acknowledge or imbibe?

If you see the self as a murderer, of course you are not being urged to emulate his behavior. But you might need to touch his qualities of courage, focus or conviction. Perhaps you are being shown this to make you less judgmental of others. Read between the lines. Think out of the box. It's all a part of embracing the Who Am I.

We challenge you to work with this and embrace your own magnificence. Let us tell you outright that everyone sitting here in this room is, in some alternative and concurrent lifetime, a world leader and world influencer. Everyone here, without exception, has influenced the lives of hundreds of thousands of people. So don't undermine the self.

This is not about receiving an ego-boost. It is about the exploration and the acknowledgment of the Who Am I. It's about learning to embrace your magnificence.

(The Master now pointed to a few group members, turn by turn, and spoke to them)

You, dear one, have repeatedly been a political leader of great influence. That is why you are so interested in the subject, even though you are not involved with it in this lifetime. And you have also been the equivalent thereof in other Universal societies as well.

You, dear one, have been an 'influencer of minds'. You have been a Guru, a communicator, and an author.

You have been a healer, teacher and priestess; one who always took care of the poor, the less fortunate, and the underdog.

This coming month will bring you all the joys of self-discovery. Use the energies of April to fall wildly in love with the self.

Prior to this meeting, he (Sohrab) spoke of the dangers of certain vows like the vows of poverty and chastity. Why not take a vow of love? A vow of magnificence? A vow of exuberance? A vow of fullness? These kinds of vows have no 'downside', and will carry forward through lifetimes, serving you again and again. Make one such vow, with utter certainty, and it is unbreakable.

THE ST. GERMAIN BLESSES YOU.

Greetings!

We ask this beautiful group to please acknowledge its individual and collective potency, and to please work right now for the embrace of Planet Earth.

Visualize Her floating in this room. Embrace her with your love and your magnificence. (Pause)

Now, individually, open your heart chakras and blast Her with your golden light. Do this from your heart. (Pause)

And it is so, and it is so, and it is so.

Dear ones, there will be several 'events' that will take place during this upcoming year; some natural, others man-made. Whenever you hear of them, do not get sucked into the drama of the incident. Instantly touch your magnificence and blast the event, and all those involved with it, with your personal light.

ARCHANGEL MICHAEL BLESSES YOU.

A SPECIAL BLESSING FROM THE ENERGIES OF THE GURU GOBIND SINGH.

THE LORD JESUS CHRIST IS WITH YOU.

THE ENERGIES OF THE HANUMAN COLLECTIVE EMBRACE YOU.
