A NEW PARADIGM OF EARTH

Greetings!

There is a new paradigm of earth being created right now; one which is superimposed on the earth as you know it.

Many of you have, in the past, read spiritual books or heard channelings in which there has been mention of the creation of a 'new earth'; one to which higher-vibrational people will be transported. However, you have always assumed that this 'new earth' will reside somewhere else in the Universe.

This is indeed happening right now, but the 'new earth' will co-exist with the old one, right here, but it a different dimension.

This is a brand-new paradigm of earth being constructed right here, right now. Try to imagine building a new house inside and around an existing one, where slowly the old one disintegrates as the new one takes shape. At a physical level you can't really do this; but at an energetic level you certainly can.

Now apply this visual to the whole of planet Earth. The new paradigm is being created by Her higher soul and by the higher souls of all her kingdoms, in unison. This collective is demanding a new, Eden-like home.

This doesn't mean it's going to be perfect, but it certainly is going to be of a much higher frequency than the current dimension of Earth. Its base frequency will no longer be 3D; it will be 5D (onwards).

The new earth is now under construction. In preparation, your current earth has to cleanse and detoxify, so that all her kingdoms upgrade and evolve to the necessary level to 'springboard' into the new paradigm. In short, through all the vigorous processes going on right now, all of you are being (energetically) athletically trained to be fit and vibrant enough to enter the new frequency.

The frequencies of the new earth are going to be magnificent. They are being created in stages. As individuals on earth grow, expand and touch 85% or more of their 5D frequencies, they will be eligible to start inhabiting the new earth.

This does not mean that earth, as they know it, will vanish. However, their perception of Earth and all that is around them is going to be so vibrant that life, for them, is going to be magnificent.

All of you are working towards this, as are Lightworkers worldwide. It is the Lightworkers that are going to lead the rest of humanity into the new paradigm of earth.

Yes, dear friends. The next few years are indeed going to bring up Black Swan events, not just in the money market, but in all areas of your lives. Black Swan events are those which have no precedent, and therefore you have no past guidelines to follow.

These teach you to touch your power, 'think on your feet' and come up with creative new solutions. They force you to go beyond religious intolerance, communalism or individualism, and work 'as a collective, for the collective'. They show you the beauty of the United Human Race.

All the other kingdoms of earth are, in general, united and in flow with Mother Earth; the human race lags far behind.

The crystalline frequencies are leading the way: they are the most advanced, sentient and evolved of all the kingdoms of earth. It is this kingdom that is furthering the spread of the current virus, and will facilitate any future events that need to take place to raise human consciousness. They will also facilitate the necessary future earth shifts and movements.

They need to be blessed; not feared. They are doing this in perfect balance and harmony. They are not 'out to kill and destroy'; instead they are serving, enhancing and elevating human consciousness.

We just wanted to introduce you to this subject today; we will repeatedly speak of it in the future. We suggest you begin to connect with the new paradigm of earth. You may do so in meditation, or in the daydream state, or simply with creative visualization.

‘See’ this new earth. Its vibrations are magnificent, its energies pure, its air fragrant and its nature is pristine. In that realm there are no diseases. Growth comes through joy and unity. There, the human race is a Super-human race. People co-exist in wisdom and harmony. You are all working towards this.

Let us now have your questions.

Will future cleansing target individuals or areas?

Both. If an area and its people need a specific boost, then the cleanse will be localized there. But for the most part, global awakening needs to happen. But again, if your frequency is high, you will be minimally affected.

If, for example, you choose to ‘stock up on food and essentials’ with the aim of serving yourself and others around you in need, then you will never go hungry. You will have enough to eat and share. But if you overstock and hoard your supplies, either selfishly or out of abject fear, you will most certainly run short and no one around will help you.

The same applies to medication. Of course buy that which is absolutely necessary, but don’t overstock. Trust that, should there be a shortage, you will find alternative natural foods to help the self. Also work on self-healing.

You are being taught to move beyond the 3D realm of fear, mistrust and separation; and to move into the 5D realm of certainty and trust in the self and in the Universe.

In certain areas, you will be able to cross over to 5D thinking. In other areas, you may find yourselves stuck in the old 3D patterns. Work on those immediately. Learn to elevate each area, one by one.

(Pointing to P.) You were absolutely correct when you earlier spoke of “Harmony through discipline”. Understand the true meaning of discipline; it has a negative connotation on earth. It never means ‘punishment’ or ‘rigidity’. It has nothing to do with societal rules, earthly law or moral coding.

Discipline is simply aligning the self with the Self. Bringing the self into focus. Flowing with inner guidance. Listening to the voice of the Higher Soul.

I've been getting the feeling that cinnamon and honey, taken together in small quantities, will not only boost our immune system, but will also serve us energetically. Could you please shed some light on this?

These two are not only immunity boosters; they are also energetic super-foods. They link you to like frequencies in the Universe, and help you achieve an even higher level of personal vibration. These two foods, taken in the right proportion (which will differ person to person) will energize you, increase your immunity, and help you achieve a new vibration through which you can download new and vital information.

What is the significance of the number 21? I feel it is very relevant at this time.

It is an extremely powerful and complex sacred geometric symbol. On earth, because of your limited visual sense, you see it simply as a 2 and a 1 placed side-by-side. In actual fact, the vibration of these two individual frequencies, when joined together, create a 12-dimension structure. This structure is a multi-faceted portal that opens up pathways to numerous parts of the Universe.

It would therefore be of great benefit to meditate on this number (as you see it) if you wish to open up to your own Universality.

What of those on earth who will be unable or unwilling to upgrade and transform over the next few years, and continue to remain entrenched in 3D?

They will, in all likelihood, choose to exit the planet and start afresh. This is not 'punishment', it will be a choice. Everyone has the right to transform at their own level, but if an earthly incarnation is extremely resistant to the process over the next few years, it will receive an invitation from its higher soul, urging it to return home to spirit and work from a different perspective.

These souls will then take advantage of advanced spirit courses (rather like coaching classes on earth); ones which will most certainly benefit them. None will 'lose out' on evolution.

In numerology, the number 21 also adds up to 3, which represents a triangle. The father, mother, son. The holy trinity. It would also be beneficial to people to meditate while imagining that they are sitting under a triangle.

Yes, the holy trinity represents the past, the present and the future in simultaneous time. It also represents the perfection of creation, preservation and destruction in complete balance and union. The triangle is also one of the key building-blocks of the Universe.

You are aware that a pyramid, which is made up of several triangles, has great potency on its own. But we also remind you of an earlier session in which we had mentioned that when any pyramid (man-made or natural) aligns with another, similar structure on another planet, an energy beam of great potency is created between the two.

As the two planets are both rotation on their axes and revolving around the sun, this beam is engaged and disengaged almost immediately. But since there are millions of these structures around the Universe, this process creates an ongoing ‘celestial laser-beam sound and light show’ of unimaginable magnificence. All of this furthers creation.
