The Energies of Each Nation

Trance Channeling begins

Greetings from the Egyptian Realm.

It may interest you to know that none of your defined 'countries' actually belong to Planet Earth at all. These are simply names or labels that you have attached to geographical regions of your own making. In actual fact, each country is a super-power in the etheric and its essence is attached, through a series of energetic strands, to those corresponding areas on planet Earth.

Let us explain this. We are the essences and the energies of the 'Egyptian realm'. Our essence is occult power, deep spiritual wisdom and the holder of universal secrets. This essence is disseminated to all of planet earth through the geographical region you call Egypt.

When we use the word 'secrets', we refer to that information which will only be disseminated at an appropriate moment in time, and not before, depending on the readiness of the individual.

Our energies hover in the etheric, very much like a water tank [to use an Earth analogy], and a 'pipeline' from this water tank is anchored to the epicenter of the area you call Egypt. The occult power, wisdom and the universal secrets are then passed through Egypt to all those around the world who are ready to access this, at any appropriate moment in time.

These etheric energies do not just serve Planet Earth; but also other planetary bodies and civilizations around the Universe. There exist equivalent 'Egyptys' in many parts of the Universe, all drawing on the same aspects, but vibrating at differing frequencies, which are dependant on the evolution of that particular society.

Group Member: – Is our Egyptian epicenter connected to the Belt of Orion? Also, what did the recent earthquake in Haiti release, in terms of energies?

The Egyptian Realm: – The Egyptian occult powers are in great demand at this moment of Universal time. [We use the example of linear time, though, as you well know, time is not linear]

There is a great calling from around the universe for upgraded occult, wisdom, power, knowledge, and dissemination. The ‘Egyptian’ powers are being drawn by various parts of the universe to enhance and facilitate this in self. The Belt of Orion is an area of deep space that releases different vibratory signatures: this facilitates the smooth transfer of these aspects to any and every part of the Universe. The Belt acts like a Universal Translator.

The Earthquake in Haiti is but one of a series of releases that will now take place around Planet Earth. Some may be through earth shifts, others through water movements, and yet others purely through energetic vibrations. A new centrifugal grid is being constructed around planet Earth for various occult reasons. This energy, as we just said, is being drawn upon very strongly right now. All aspects of Planet earth wish to use this to grow and enhance their vibrations.

The animal, mineral and plant kingdoms, along with your water elements, are absorbing these at a greater frequency than humankind. You are doing this the slowest, as your resistance to personal growth and development is the greatest.

Group Member: Speaking of the earthquake in Haiti, and all the voodoo stuff that they do: is there any karma linked to this particular episode?

The Egyptian Realm: – Let us not speak of this in terms of ‘karma’ at all.

The voodoo, the witchcraft, and other similar occult practices in this area had got contaminated to a certain degree over years, due to misuse and misdirection.

Please understand that when we use the word ‘misuse’ here, we are not passing a judgment. The use of energy in any way has its own validity. But many practitioners tapped into and used this energy in a manner not compatible to their own personal stream. In other words, they may have had a life mission to use this for healing, and used it for destruction instead. Or vice versa. And this required energetic re-alignment.

The earthquake has released energies of cleansing and purification, not only for the physical area and all those who inhabit it, but for the energies themselves. Watch for a new spirit power to arise in this area over the next few years. So new that it will startle humanity.

Group Member: Can you define ‘occult’ in your terms, not ours?

The Egyptian Realm: – Occult is a very difficult word for us to define in human terms and with the limitations of the spoken word.

Simplistically, the Occult refers to different frequencies of Universal energies, synthesized for pure creation. It is true alchemy; but at such a complex level that it is impossible to describe. It simply has to be experienced.

You are already aware of layers of consciousness. Consciousness is an experience of all that is and consciousness embraces vibration and non-vibration, matter and anti-matter. The Occult takes consciousness to a new level: it helps consciousness recreate itself.

Group Member: That means it is an ascension process.

The Egyptian Realm: – Absolutely. It is the ascension process of consciousness itself. The ultimate ascension. So you see how misconstrued this term is: it has nothing to do with the waving of two bones around in a voodoo ritual!

Group Member: Are the Haitians special people who have an inherent knowledge of the Occult?

The Egyptian Realm: – A good question! As we have said, each country has an etheric energy which is accessed by Planet Earth through that specific region, and from there, disseminated to all around the planet.

So those who have been born there, or those who move and live there for a substantial period in time, do vibrate predominantly with that energy. It becomes a part of their cellular structure; their very DNA, whether or not they are consciously aware of this, or even choose to exercise this consciously during their lifetime.

Others, on an energetic level, work as 'energy carriers'. They may move in and out of this country from time to time, hold the energies temporarily, and carry this energy back to their homeland.

We have spoken of the Egyptian energies; let us now speak of a few of the other countries.

The energies of America are the energies of pure enterprise and endeavor. The very foundation of the country is based on personal endeavor. Yes, it has gone into the creation of wealth, and yes, the creation of wealth was intended to be abundance in its purest form.

As you well know, this area recently went into an energetic spasm, as it realized that instead of abundance, it was moving into conspicuous consumption, greed, waste and hedonism. The area created its own crash: it has done so before, and it will do so again, every time it wishes to bring itself into correction.

Remember: the energies of endeavor, enterprise and abundance may enter through this space, but they are for the benefit of the whole planet. Therefore, if the collective consciousness of the whole world decides that abundance is not flowing properly, it will cause shifts in America, to right itself.

Through the continent of Africa flow the energies of rediscovery and reinvention of self. You are all drawing upon these energies right now, as that is precisely what you are all working on this year. It is through the rediscovery of self that you can achieve unity with self.

Because you are all focused on this area, it is beginning to activate and 'shine.' You will shortly witness new minerals and natural resources being 'discovered' here. New businesses and new opportunities will emerge for its people. It is on the 'up and coming'. Because of this process, areas of density within it will crash, to make way for the new.

Group Member: Can you tell me about the energies of Malaysia?

The Egyptian Realm: –Malaysia will help you focus upon micro-elements within self. The energies flowing through Malaysia, during the current year, will act like a surgeon who is going into your body and examining tiny aspects within the brain, within the heart and repairing those micro-elements, so easily missed, that need to be vitally restructured for the overall flow of the whole.

If you choose to tap into these energies, you will find yourself examining those tiny, hidden, almost insignificant parts of self that you have either ignored or being unaware of before, and you will find a new enlightenment coming through working on these micro- aspects of self.

Japan, during the current year, offers you the opportunity to examine within self, both the fearless warrior and the cruel tyrant. Both these aspects need to be examined simultaneously, as they are often intertwined. Warriors of the Light, which you all are, can often slip into cruel tyranny, which is, more often than not, directed towards self. Have you not observed how harsh and unforgiving you can be to yourselves?

Group Member: What about the North and South Poles?

The Egyptian Realm: –These two areas are the Crown and Base Chakra of Planet Earth. The energies of each are beginning to merge with the other, just as your well-defined Chakric system is beginning to bleed, one into the other. No more are your chakras separated. You cannot just love from the heart anymore; you must be able to from all Chakric points. Your psychic faculties are not limited to the third eye; your third eye now extends all around the body. And so on. The energies of the Earth Mother's chakras are leading this merger.

Therefore the energies of the North and South Pole are the energies of Merger and Unification.

Group Member: Tibet? Peru?

The Egyptian Realm: – Tibet: we will summarize this area in two words: Divine Exploration. Tap into the energies of Tibet, and you can go to the ends of the universe and back.

Peru: Endings and New Beginnings. Tap into the energies flowing through Peru, and you will find it easier to dislodge old debris, release old patterns and thought processes, shatter boundaries, and create self anew. It may interest you to know that many in this room are using this very energy a lot.

Group Member:– India?

The Egyptian Realm: – The etheric 'water-tank' energies of India are those of Unity through Disparity. To embrace all that is, in its divine uniqueness, and to see only Oneness. Harmony through diversity. What a beautiful energetic space all of you have chosen, into which to incarnate!

Why would you have chosen this? For many possible reasons. It could simply be your natural stream. Or you could have found that you always had trouble with this aspect, and needed to give yourself a jolt in this area, to assimilate it. Or because you wished to awaken others to this aspect, as you already contain it naturally. And so on.

Now, what are the energies that India is drawing, in 2010, from this beautiful water tank? In one word: "transparency".

To offer yourselves the opportunity to be visible to self.

To be able to examine every nook and cranny, however deeply hidden, within self.

To embrace ALL aspects of self.

To joyously appreciate and celebrate the diversity within self, and to see in it only Union.

View all that is around you: the filth, the corruption, the greed, the disharmony, the separation and understand the divine magnificence of all of it.

Does this mean that you just sit back and accept everything? Of course not!

But if you work on transparency of self, you will know when to sit up and take action, when to lie back and remain still, where to affect a change, and where to accept what you cannot change.

Draw on the energies of your magnificent country joyously!!!

BLESSINGS FROM THE EGYPTIAN COLLECTIVE.

The Ashtaar Making Contact

[Sohrab continues channeling]

Greetings from the Ashtaar:

Sense us, feel us, and see us now. Yes, you have all seen unusual cloud formations in the skies. Yes, we are here. In the physical.

Tune into us at all times. We must work predominantly with and through enlightened friends like you, who are already familiar with us and our energies. You can be our conduits, our spokespersons. Share our truth with others. Help others accept, as we shall show ourselves soon.

Contact has already been made, and once again, this contact is being suppressed. This time we will not permit suppression beyond a certain point. We await the rise of the collective consciousness. The levels are not yet high enough for us to make a full appearance. But we will shortly be spoken of in you media. Watch for us.

Group Member: May I ask one thing? People are seeing your spacecrafts all over, and yet the media doesn't announce it!

The Ashtaar: We are still disguising ourselves to a certain degree, introducing these visuals into the sky gently, so that more and more people get comfortable with them before they see us in physical form.

Many of the 'strange' cloud formations mask our high vibrational crafts. Your planes can actually 'fly through us' without realizing this. We do not wish to cause widespread panic.

But slowly, we will lower the vibration of our crafts, and then we will be, at first glimpsed, and then seen.

We will continue to monitor your fear levels. If they rise beyond acceptable limits during this process, we will once again raise our vibrations, and await your acceptance.

Speak of us to others, dear friends! We are not here to invade or conquer; we are here to embrace and enlighten!

THE SANANDA BLESSES YOU.
