FOUR NEW AREAS OF HIGH ACTIVATION

AN ATLANTEAN TEMPLE

THREE EGYPTIAN PYRAMIDS

MOUNT KAILASH

AN AREA IN THE AMAZONIAN JUNGLE

Greetings!

Four areas on Planet Earth are in the process of being very strongly activated as we speak. These frequencies will only get stronger as time goes on. We would like to introduce you to them, so that, if you so choose, you may interact with any combination of them.

The first area contains an ancient Atlantean Temple. This still exists, in ruins, deep in the Mariana trench. Its frequencies are now beginning to pulsate. It has lain dormant for many millennia, but the time has come for it to be re-activated. Its exact location is unimportant; just choose to visualize it, and you will automatically be connected with it.

This temple was one of pure crystalline frequency. It was made of crystal; no other materials were used in its construction. Now that it has been energetically re-activated, it is emitting a very strong pulse. This pulse contains energies from the temple's past, as well as new Universal energies that are being passed through it, for dissemination to the entire planet.

These frequencies are extremely vibrant. Tune into them as we speak. They are sharp, piercing frequencies; and if you choose to work with them, they will further activate your psychic powers. They are specifically to be used by those who wish to increase their knowledge, wisdom and awareness; and those who desire to increase their connection with the supernatural.

These are not energies to be taken lightly. When working with them, ask the self to guide you. You cannot sit with them for extended periods of time. If you do, you will overdose on them, and damage your physical bodies and brain pathways. Now do not be scared or tentative; simply be responsible. In general, you will only be able to access these energies for a few minutes at a time.

You may also direct them to another whom you would like to elevate, both energetically as well as psychically. Here, you do not need the person's physical approval. Simply connect with his higher soul and ask for permission.

Can these be used to heal another?

No. They are specific to what we have already mentioned.

Use them to your benefit by drawing them into the cellular structure. If you do so repeatedly, you will find your intuitive powers increasing tremendously. They will also help you in your business and daily activities, as they will help you 'tune in' to the job, the situation with which you are involved, the people concerned, and so on.

This particular temple was, in its heyday, governed by 9 High Priestesses; each one an energy Master. Though they are no longer in physical form, their strong energetic echoes remain with the temple, and will continue to do so forever. You may choose to also call upon this wonderful group of 9, and ask them to serve you in the process.

Why has this temple been recently re-activated?

This is because Planet Earth is now ready to receive this level of frequency. This particular temple harnesses both Solar and Lunar energies equally. This yin/yang balance is exactly what you need right now.

Could we work with these energies several times during a single day?

Yes you could, but remember not to use them for more than 4 to 5 minutes at a time, or as guided by your own being.

Could these energies make us light-headed?

Yes, they are very likely to do so. They could also make you feel slightly disoriented and give you a sensation of floating. A few may also experience acidity.

I know I have been connecting with them for a while. Did they start about 15 days ago?

The flow began about a month ago, and has gradually increased in intensity. This will only continue to increase.

So have I unconsciously been working with them? I just know I have.

Many people like you, dear friend, have chosen to interact with these energies at a higher-conscious level. We are simply bringing this to your conscious mind, so that you can further use them to your benefit.

The second area of activation is in Egypt: three ancient Pyramids have been re-activated.

Here, we need to refresh your memory. A pyramid on its own is an incomplete structure. It is a 'battery terminal'. It fully activates when it aligns exactly with a compatible pyramidal structure on another planet. At that moment, a beam of energy is created between the two. In the next instant, due to the rotation of the two planets, the beam disconnects.

Now understand that there are millions of pyramidal structures on millions of planets. Because of this, your earthly pyramids are constantly in a state of activation, de-activation and re-activation, virtually moment-to-moment. This creates a very powerful energetic pulse.

Three pyramids in Egypt have recently been energetically upgraded to a very high degree. They are also in a specific sacred geometrical position, in relation to one other. And they activate and de-activate simultaneously. This generates a tremendous pulse, which is necessary for Planet Earth's growth and evolution. So these pyramids are now serving your Mother Gaia.

These energies are helping purify Planet Earth. They are working to cleanse the soil of the debris and toxins you have put into it. They are cleaning out, slowly, her water bodies, oil reserves, minerals and so on. This process will continue long-term, possibly for another century. But it has now begun.

You will find, over the next 3-5 years, a resurgence in the crops you grow. New and healthy strains will arise. Fruit and vegetables will offer higher-level nutrition, helping you combat the damage you have done to yourselves and the plant kingdom with artificial chemicals and fertilizers.

This does not give you the permission to continue to pollute and toxify your Mother. This just offers you a ray of hope, and the opportunity to change your old ways.

If we plant vegetables in pots in our homes, will these energies also help them?

Most certainly. Why not call upon the energies to help enrich your produce and your homes and gardens? You may even call upon them to enrich the ground under your homes, or your entire neighborhood. By doing this, energies will be released upward into your apartment buildings, which will naturally serve all the tenants.

Can we help these energies serve our Planet?

Yes. Though this is taking place without your help, if you do add your consciousness to it, it will speed up the process. Each individual's strong intent can boost the healing.

Are these well-known Pyramids in Egypt?

No. Even if you have visited that country, you are unlikely to have met these pyramids. And we deliberately use the word 'met', as Pyramids are energetic beings.

The third areas being activated is Mount Kailash. Though this has always been an energetic hot-spot, it is now releasing energies that have never before been experienced by Planet Earth. They are a series of frequencies governed by the Universal Mohammed Collective. And they are working to bring about Universal Brotherhood.

These energies are going to work very subtly and sneakily (yes, we use this word deliberately), inching their way into the consciousness of the human race, urging people to first befriend the self, by learning to love, accept, appreciate and acknowledge themselves. After this, they are going to urge people to do the same externally, embracing others in Universal Brotherhood.

Yes, this process will take time, but take heart...it has begun. Those who are open to this concept will expand very rapidly now. Possibly over the next 3 to 6 months. Those who resist this energy will fight it, but they will not win. Because it will seep in, drop by drop, because the higher consciousness of Planet Earth has given this energy permission to infiltrate every single human being. So you can resist it, but you cannot refuse it. The only way you can do so is by choosing to exit the planet.

Will other planets and other Universal societies also be affected by this energy?

Yes they will; but in completely different ways. For example, many other societies already flow with Universal Brotherhood; but one may require a boost in technology, and another a deeper understanding of relationships. Each planet will choose what is the most effective for its current level of evolution.

Can this energy be misused?

It is simply not possible to misuse this energy. It can either be used, or resisted for a period of time. Because it is the energy of pure Joy. And joy has no opposite. Happiness has sadness, pain has pleasure. But joy is just joy. Either you experience it, or you don't. But it has no opposite.

It may interest you to know that the Universal Mohammed energies, which have been pulsating through earth for years now, have recently facilitated the tremendous rise in awareness, spirituality, technology, science and all the arts.

The rise you observe in terrorism and other destructive acts is resistance to these energies. Ironically enough, most of the people who are of that faith and carry out these acts are completely resisting the very flow that they desire, at a higher level.

Why has the Universal Mohammed allowed that?

Dear friend, free will is your birthright on Planet Earth! It is through this that you grow and evolve.

Even terrorists pray a lot; surely that should guide them in another direction?

Let us first distinguish between terrorists whose soul mission it is to create the havoc that they do; and those who have chosen this indoctrination in order to awaken and surmount it.

The former are in full alignment with their mission, and that which is necessary for the evolution of others; but the latter category is not. Let us speak of them.

When you strongly resist energy, it keeps coming at you in increased doses. So when they pray, they do receive the necessary guidance; but they simply resist it. The more they struggle, the more out of balance they go, until they ‘crack’. At that point, they awaken in full awareness. Others who do not ‘crack’ actually choose a violent death, so that in that process their energies shatter and they finally awaken.

The last area is a hidden one, deep in the Amazonian jungles. It is not even inhabited by a tribe. No human has ever ventured into this small area, which approximately two square miles. It is covered in dense foliage and marshland.

This particular area has deliberately been kept human-free, and is now releasing energies necessary for the evolution of the human race exclusively. To be able to generate the appropriate pure frequencies, humans have to be kept out, as they would unwittingly contaminate it.

If you choose, tune into this area only a few times; perhaps three or four times at most. It will reveal a secret message to you. Each person will receive a different, yet personal message. Tune in. If you don’t get it the first few times, then stop. You are just not ready to receive it. It will come to you at a later date.

Is this area very hot?

Yes it is, not only because of the climate, but also because of the energy that it emits. The marshes here also bubble with energy. The area also has such a strong stench that humans wouldn’t be able to withstand it, even if they tried to do so.

How come the nearby tribes haven't attempted to enter it?

They consider it a very sacred space. They intuitively know that they are not permitted to enter it, so they don't even try. In rare cases, individuals from the tribes have made the attempt. Each one has vanished.

The tribesmen respect this, and consider it the 'wrath of the Gods'. What really happened was that those few were overpowered by the vapor, died, and their physical bodies were consumed by the land and the marsh itself.

What about animals? Can they go in?

Only a certain few; those that do not interfere with its frequencies.

The Reptiles?

Yes, the reptilian kingdom.

WE LEAVE YOU NOW IN THE LOVE, LIGHT AND EMBRACE OF THE ST.
GERMAIN, THE HIGH LORD MITREYA AND THE MAHA AVATAR BABAJI.

BLESSINGS.
