MERGING WITH MASTER ENERGIES

SPECIFIC AREAS IN WHICH MASTERS ARE WORKING WITH THE HUMAN RACE DURING 2017

Greetings!

Various Master energies will address you today, one by one. They will speak of how they will serve you, should you desire to interact with their frequencies.

Please understand that the energies of the Masters are freely available to ALL on planet Earth; regardless of your religion or religious beliefs. Many have already called upon these Masters at a higher-conscious level. But when you consciously know this information, you can make choices at will and intensify the effect of their energies.

But let us first explain what actually happens when you call upon a Master energy. When you choose to do so, you consciously invite a host of energetic strands into your physical and energetic bodies. You simultaneously open up your cellular structure, and with this welcome flow you vibrate all the cells in your body, so that they align with the Master frequency. This is just like tuning a musical instrument. This leads to a harmonious merger between the Master frequencies and yours, so that you now vibrate and flow at a much higher level than you did before.

This is why we suggest that whenever you choose to call upon a Master energy, you take a few minutes to breathe and center yourselves, relax the body, and only then invite the merger to take place. You don't have to visualize each cell opening up; that will happen automatically. But the process of balancing and opening up is your responsibility.

When you then vibrate with this new merger, you energetically declare to the Universe that you are as magnificent and worthy as the Master. But if, when attempt this procedure, you feel small, insignificant and unworthy; you are not opening to the merger at all. You are only fooling the self into believing that you are 'in connection'.

Can we do this for another?

You have our permission to do this for children under the age of 6: not only for your child or grandchild, but for any child.

However, if you wish to bless another (older) person with Master energies, you may invite the Master to bless them and, simultaneously, you may invite the higher soul energies of the person in question to open to these Master frequencies. In short, you can play the role of an energetic matchmaker; but you cannot insist upon the marriage.

Could you please guide us through this energetic merger?

We will do so shortly.

Can any other entities or energies interfere with or block this process?

Yes, this can happen in a few, rare cases; such as when a person is extremely mentally disturbed, energetically fragmented or is 'possessed'. But even here, if the person chooses to gather together his energies and center himself temporarily, he will be able to affect a successful merger. And in doing so, he will instantly strengthen the self.

Once we attempt a merger, will the Master energies remain with us permanently, or will the procedure have to be repeated?

In general, they will remain with you for 'a while'. This could vary from a few hours to a few days, depending on whether or not you allow the self to go out of balance. Ideally, check from time to time whether or not you are still flowing with the energies. If not, simply repeat the process. An average person will need to do this every couple of days. Remember, the process does not take long: a few minutes at most. Give yourselves that much time and respect.

Do we need to choose only one Master frequency at a time, or can we welcome them all? After all, they are 'all one'.

Most of you are mentally aware of the fact that 'all energies are one'. If you truly believe this, then you don't need to individuate; you can simply open to a Universal flow. But don't fool yourselves. Most of you 'know' this, but don't really 'feel' it. If that is the case, then go ahead and individuate.

How do Master energies differ from 'pure light', with which we often work? Is there a difference? Is there any form of individuation of Master energies?

When you work with 'pure light', you are working with the unified energies of the collective.

In the Universe, all Master energies blend perfectly, and there is very little separation between them. But there still is a level of individuation: far less than that which exists on earth; but individuation nonetheless. They choose to retain this for your benefit. You still need names, forms and attributes to better recognize and connect with them.

Let's quote an example given to this group earlier. Imagine walking in a garden filled with thousands of fragrant flowers. You would be overwhelmed with an ecstatic merger of all these fragrances, and you would not easily be able to differentiate one from another. Yet if you chose to focus on a single blossom and went near it, you would be able to identify its particular scent.

In the same way, you may joyously enjoy the collective fragrance of the Masters; or choose to individuate, to better understand the self.

When you call upon a Master, how do you know for sure that he has really come to you?

Your mind is an invaluable Universal gift; yet it can be a trickster. You have to learn to still the mind to a greater degree. Not to 100%: that is never possible on Earth. Even the most evolved swamis, gurus and yogis can only still the mind to a certain degree, perhaps into the 90 percentile range.

When you have stilled the mind to a large extent, you have fewer doubts. You are then certain of your connection.

Many people use physical evidence to prove to themselves their connection. And yes, sometimes the body does shake and vibrate. But that is actually no 'proof'. We now urge you to go beyond this and just trust the Universe and the Self. Just trust, with absolute certainty, that when you call, your call is answered.

Let's give you a simple example. You trust that your lungs are going to keep working, moment to moment, and that is why you can breathe without any effort. But if you were to have a choking fit, you would instinctively call out for help.

In the same way, the very presence of your own higher soul and Universal energies keeps you alive and functioning every moment of your lives. You tend to take this for granted. But when you are in trouble, you cry for the help of the Masters, thinking that they have forsaken you. They have not; and they do answer immediately.

Dear friends, a Universal Law states that "When you call, the call must be answered". And this applies not just to the human race, but to all sentient beings in the Universe.

So you often put out the call, which is immediately answered, but you block the channels. So the Master energies flow in to a certain degree, but can go no further. It's like calling out for physical help but simultaneously refusing to open your front door. The Master is always at the doorstep, repeatedly ringing the doorbell, but you refuse to let him in.

So what we need is belief.

Yes; belief in the self, in the Universe, in science, in creation and in existence. How could you exist if you weren't in flow? You just wouldn't.

BLESSINGS, JOY, LIGHT AND LOVE FROM THE ENERGIES OF ST. GERMAIN.

(Sohrab shifts energies)

Blessings from the frequencies of SANT GYNESHWAR.

The Sant Gyneshwar specifically offers energies, this year, to those who are Indian by birth and to those who are not, but have chosen to reside in this country for lengthy periods of time.

His frequencies help you touch and intensify your belief: belief in the self and in your brand of spirituality, no matter what it is. He will help you forge a stronger and stronger connection between the self and the Divine, should you choose to call upon his energies.

Many in this country have already been calling upon him, at a higher-conscious level, to further this and to find out who they really are. Use these energies joyously.

As requested, let us walk you through a short exercise to help you connect with our energies. If you would rather work with another Master energy, you may joyously do so. It is your supreme choice.

Breathe, relax and center yourselves. Temporarily put aside your problems. Choose to give yourselves this exercise as a gift. You have chosen to come here today. Your time in this room is also a gift from you, to you. Accept this gift gracefully. So take a moment, be with yourselves, and enjoy your own company. (Pause)

Now choose to open the crown chakra and any other chakric points in the body that you desire, and call upon our energies (or those of another Master). Visualize us in a physical form or as pure energy; whatever pleases you. Now TRUST that we are flowing into your body, activating all your cells, head to toe. Open, call and receive....now. (Long pause)

Many are unconsciously blocking our energies in certain areas in the body.

Command these to open up (even if you don't quite know which areas are blocked) and receive our energies fully. (Pause)

With this connection, visualize your own higher soul. Once again, allow this to 'appear to you' either in a form, or as pure energy. Examine this, acknowledging the merger that has already taken place between your energies and ours. And yes, every single person in this room has merged. (Pause)

And so it is, and so it is, and so it is.

It's this easy. Many of you experienced beautiful aspects of your higher souls. A few resisted. So be it. Try it again and again. Don't give up.

BLESSINGS FROM THE SANT GYNESHWAR.

(Sohrab shifts energies)

THE MEHER (BABA) GREETES YOU! BLESSINGS ALL!

(Addressing a group member, whose mother had recently passed over) She is dancing with me now. What are you worried about? All is well. She has understood my magnificence; and in doing so, she is beginning to acknowledge and understand her magnificence. All is well. ALL IS WELL.

She is still not fully cognizant of what is happening, but she is in a blaze of light, and is thoroughly enjoying it. She will heal, she will grow and she will awaken. Leave it to me. Trust. You still have doubts about her well-being. Leave those behind in this room. Now KNOW that all is well with her. She is at peace.

Friends, the Meher is not likely to be called upon by you this year! (Laughing) He offers a boost to those who deal with science, mathematics, physics, astronomy and technology. Yes, if you want to understand your computers and mobile phones a little better, please call on the Meher!

(Laughter) However, if you still want to call on him as a friend, please do so.

Yes, the Meher is working with people the world over, creating a synergy between science, technology and creativity. They go hand-in-hand. A surge is needed in these areas, for necessary break-throughs to take place.

The Meher is also working very specifically with certain scientific and technological minds that have called upon him; all at a higher-conscious level. He will help them stimulate technology and simultaneously devise methods to lessen the adverse effects that they have on human body and the human psyche; as the energies currently emanating from technology is now doing just that.

But remember, the Masters are not permitted to 'force you' in a direction of their choice; they can only guide, advise and even urge you to awaken. So the Meher is working towards influencing these scientific brains to create non-invasive, non-toxic technology.

The Meher's greatest challenges include corporation heads and government bodies. They unfortunately work from the perspective of greed.

With the tremendous rise of science and technology, what if we go astray and destroy ourselves? We tend to be very irresponsible as a race!

Exactly. What did the Atlanteans do? Just that. They overdosed on technology and crystalline energy, and eventually destroyed themselves. But remember, humanity has evolved from that era. There are enough people who are aware of this and are choosing to make it public. You do have the opportunity to awaken and change your course.

However, if humanity does not awaken and technology goes out-of-hand, the Masters will step in rather brutally. We could even create a worldwide crash of your systems, wherein you would be deprived of power, computers, electricity and other lines of communication. Though this is not likely to happen, it is a 'fail-safe device' which will be instituted, if necessary.

Will medical breakthroughs include a cure for cancer?

The cure for cancer has already been discovered. But it is being suppressed.

Will it come out this year?

That is unlikely. But it will soon be 'leaked', and the Pharma companies will do their best to suppress it. Unite with other Lightworkers and send out the strong intent that it is leaked, and that it does reach the public.

THE MEHER BLESSES YOU.

(Sohrab shifts energies)

SAI KA PRANAAM. BLESSINGS FROM THE SAI.

The Sai offers the human race a beautiful new opportunity: to be able to look at another person and recognize yourself. Though this sounds so simple, it is one of the most complex energetic configurations to create in the human race. This aspect is being firmly resisted.

Call on the Sai to help you do this. Even you as Lightworkers, tend to resist this. Choose to challenge the self: defy your inner resistance and invite the Sai's energies to help you with this. It will truly make you feel wonderful.

BLESSINGS.

(Sohrab shifts energies)

THE ENERGIES OF ARCHANGEL MICHAEL BLESS YOU.

A special blessing to several in this room (he pointedly looks at various group members, one by one)

The Michael offers you the opportunity to turn your lives around. If there is any area, or areas, in which you desire to make a 180 degree turn-around, then call on the Michael to help you. But do not do this lightly: if you do call on him, he will initiate the process at breakneck speed, regardless of the consequences.

Let us illustrate this with an example. Let us say that a woman is trapped in a harsh marriage, desires a separation and calls on the Michael. He will begin to speed up the process. If she then demurs, he may even instigate the husband to become extremely abusive, to give her the necessary 'push' to take the necessary action and keep her 'on-track'. She then cannot say, "I didn't mean this to happen".

So the Michael will work towards the best outcome for you and your 'opponent' as well. Be prepared for consequences. But don't be scared of him; be courageous instead, and fearlessly call on his help.

Can we call upon Michael on another's behalf?

No. Once again, you can act as a liaison officer and introduce the Michael to the higher-soul of another, but you cannot demand he help another. That person has to ask for it.

What if we make the wrong decision?

The beautiful part of this era (2017 onwards) is that there is no longer any 'wrong decision'; there are only differing growth paths. In the past, 'right' and 'wrong' had no bearing on society or morals; it was simply a question of whether or not you were following the promptings of your own higher soul, or not.

Now, even this has upgraded. You can use your free-will and choose any path. Each and every one will serve to help you grow and evolve. But you will always have to deal with consequences.

May we ask the Michael to help us with self-growth and with relationships?

You can ask him to help you make a drastic change in any area you desire.

He does not distinguish between 'good' and 'evil'. If you are a kind and honest person and want to become an expert thief, the Michael will help you with this as well. (Laughter) He does not judge. He knows that all choices are now perfect for your growth and evolution.

Now, bathe all the names mentioned at the start of the meeting in Michael's pure golden-white light. Do not send any official 'healing'; just bathe them, and yourselves, in this glorious light. (Pause)

(Speaking to M, and referring to her friend's child who was in a coma.) Dear one, you are to bless the child with Michael's energies. They have been placed in you today for this reason. Bless him, hands-on, with the Michael's energies.
